Arnab Interacts

On 13th September, 2013, Royal global School organized an interactive session with Mr. Arnab Goswami, the editor-in-chief of Times Now and the youth icon at D'Royal Auditorio. The fearless journalist came up with four mantras for the young aspirants:

Follow your heart- "If you want to be truly successful you have to do what you really want to do. Don't always think logically. Listen to your heart". He said that he is so successful today because he always listened to his heart. He admitted that the same impulse is the secret of his professional success.

Take risks- The greater the risk, the bigger the reward. He said , "The more settled you are, the less successful you will be. The more restless you are, more successful you will be"

Never be afraid- fear leads to failure, be fearless in adversity. Many people compromise because of fear and this leads to corruption and greed. He advised students , " If you feel that you are right, then you should never be afraid".

Think very, very big-"Dare to dream, because the greatest things on this earth have been accomplished by only those who dared to dream very big". Sharing his thoughts with the Royalites, he said that his dream is to put Indian media on Global map like CNN and BBC.

He rounded off the speech by quoting a quote by Mahatma Gandhi, which is very close to his heart. "First they ignore you, then they laugh at you, then they fight you and then you win"

How Google GLASS works

Gadget of the Year

Google Glass

Price: $1,500

Momentarily limited to the developer crowd, Google's computing eyewear is slowly progressing into the game-changer we all imagined it would become upon launch. The Android-based smart glasses known as Google Glass push the boundaries of wearable technology by allowing owners to perform actions, such as answer emails, take pictures, and translate text hands-free-all viewable on a micro-display. The steep price hasn't stopped many from garnering interest in the hi-tech specs. Google's commitment to enhancing its mobile OS platform only shows Google Glass' true potential as we head towards the future.

Monday Blues!

What is the meaning of Monday blues...? Let's break the idiom into its main meaning components:

Monday + Blue

Monday is the first day of the week for Christians; Functionally, however, it has turned to be the first working day for many people of different religions if they are employees in non-Muslim countries(unfortunately!).

It is usually referred to Monday morning and the reluctance that people feel to start the day after the weekend. So, here is the list of people who shared their "MondayBlues":-

ShubhaSah: Miss my Sunday!

KerelaHazarika: I didn't feel like coming.

PareshanParashar: Lucky me...I got suspended!

Kashmeer-ki: Another week of work.

Pas-panchTamuli: Waiting for the weekend.

Jolly-ink Haokip: Annoying Monday more annoying than annoying orange.

My-ant Nahata: Sorry to disappoint you, Sunday was too hectic couldn't jump off the building.

Jigri-ma Das: Horrifying...grudge seems less scary.

Ghee-raj Hazarika: Never ending mile....

Zoo-tyluwang: Dreadfully,upsetting, 4 chemistry lessons...save me!!

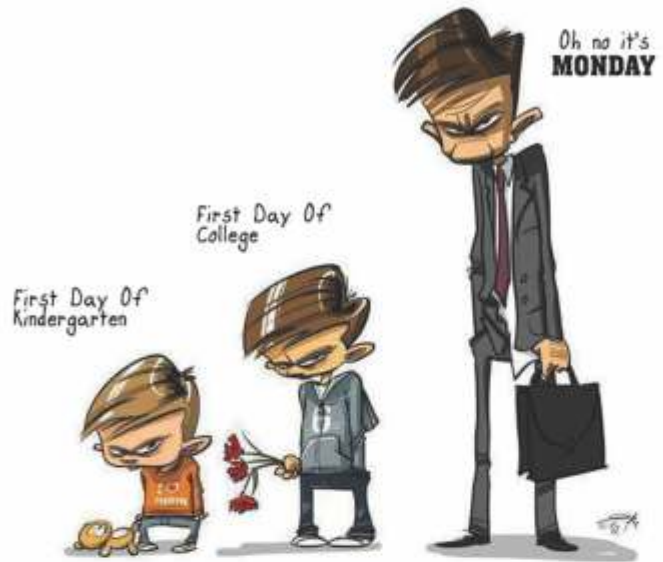

Dayana Kalita: Oh! No! I don't want Monday!

Luluna Barman: I hate how Monday is so far away from Friday and Friday is so close to Monday.

Anu'bhai Das: Since Monday is here I'm ready to give 100% at work:

13%Monday,22%Tuesday,26%Wednesday,30%Thursday,4%Friday & 5%Saturday.
